Development Manager

Mission Group, the Okanagan's leading real estate development and building company, is looking for a full-time Real Estate Development Manager to help us create amazing neighbourhoods with inclusive communities and environmentally responsible homes.

At Mission Group, we make our decisions based on our shared values of Excellence, Service, Responsibility and Honesty. We intentionally invest in people, not just land and buildings. We build it forward by helping others, whether it's building homes, building careers or building social responsiveness in the community. If this thinking resonates with you, consider joining our team. This job could be a great fit for you if:

You're good at:

- Leading real estate development teams
- Building positive relationships
- Managing the municipal approvals process

You thrive on:

- Conducting yourself with excellence and integrity
- Being a great team player with a sense of humour
- Working collaboratively with other teams

You want to:

- Earn a competitive compensation package
- Put your 5+ years of relevant experience to work
- Have an opportunity to really shine in your role

How to apply:

Email a cover letter and resume to hr@missiongroup.ca. Don't forget to tell us what makes you great to have around and why you'd be a good fit for this job.
